Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time
February 11, 2024
Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, everything for the glory of God – 1 Corinthians 10:31

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The leper will dwell apart, making an abode outside the camp (Leviticus 13:1-2, 44-46).
Psalm — I turn to you, Lord, in time of trouble, and you fill me with the joy of salvation (Psalm 32).
Second Reading — Do everything for the glory of God; be imitators of Christ (1 Corinthians 10:31- 11:1).
Gospel — The leprosy left him immediately, and he was made clean (Mark 1:40-45).

FOR THE GLORY OF GOD

The entire history of the Jewish people is directed toward one goal: that God might be glorified through the chosen people. Christians, too, are called to "do everything for the glory of God." In today's scriptures, Paul reminds us that the best way for us to glorify God is to seek to benefit "the many," as Christ did when he shed his blood for all of mankind.

The reading from Leviticus explains one way the Jews sought to benefit the many, by keeping lepers and leprosy away from the chosen people. Jesus finds a better way. He cures the lepers who immediately re-enters the community to spread the good news about Jesus to everyone who will listen. In this way, both Jesus and the leper fulfill their calling to glorify the God who fills us "with the joy of salvation."
